

Fiesta & FINANCE 2013

About 225 people were in attendance at the first fundraising dinner event for Sus Finanzas, held recently to support the nonprofit group's cause of providing free financial literacy, free monetary matching programs and affordable microfinancing options to low-income families in San Joaquin County.

Special guests in attendance were: Rep. Jerry McNerney, D-Stockton; Andy Prokop, CEO of United Way of San Joaquin County; Jose Rodriguez, CEO of El Concilio; Brenna Garcia, CEO of the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce; Stockton City Council members Moses Zapien and Dyane Burgos; and representatives of Rep. Jeff Denham, R-Modesto, and Assemblywoman Susan Eggman, D-Stockton.

